

Mary Clark

Associate Professor of Political Science

Mary Clark is Associate Professor of Political Science. She also served as the Executive Director of the Center for International Studies from 2004-2006. Professor Clark has written on economic development policy and health care in Latin America. She is currently conducting research on the politics of health reform in post-Katrina Louisiana.

Professor Clark may be reached at maclark@tulane.edu.