

Ann Salzer

Assistant Provost

After graduating from Newcomb College of Tulane University in 1978, Ann Salzer served as Assistant Registrar for five years before moving to Tulane Law School as Assistant Dean for Academic Services. From 1992-1994 she served as the Law School's liaison to the architect and contractor during the construction for Weinmann Hall and chaired the school's art committee. She later served as editor of the alumni magazine, the Tulane Lawyer, and supervised the Alumni and Development Office during the Promise and Distinction Campaign. Following Hurricane Katrina, she was part of the Emergency Operations Team in Houston and in 2006 accepted a position in the Provost's Office.

Ms. Salzer may be reached at asalzer@tulane.edu.